

Skippers Lose

Jack Ayer singled and Paul Plante doubled in two runs, but it wasn't enough, and Cohasset baseball forces lost to Holbrook, 3-2, last week.

In its second start of the week, the Skippers ran into a two-hitter unfurled by John Cass of Hull and bowed, 2-1, letting the Pirates clinch at least a tie for the South Shore League championship.

Cohasset pitcher Bill Kurtz only gave up five hits while striking out three and walking but four but lost the mound duel to the Hull hurler who struck out 11 and gave up no walks.

Louise Smullen Scout Director

Mrs. Louise Smullen of Cohasset was elected a member-at-large to the board of directors of the Blue Hill Girl Scout Council, for a three-year term at the council's annual meeting last week.

Mrs. Gordon Goodwin, also of Cohasset, was elected to the nominating committee for a three-year term as a member-at-large.

Golf Models

Models in the Cohasset Golf Club luncheon and fashion show were Sharon Achilles, Celeste Churchill, Ann Collins, Kathleen Croninger, Elenor Dizey, Gene Patterson, Kathy Pocock, Jean Repolgle and Rich Thibeault. Mrs. Croninger was the show's coordinator and Mary Hartwell gave the commentary.

Ellen Morrissey has completed a two week training course given to sales representatives for Compugraphic Corp. of Wilmington.

Mrs. Smullen is currently a junior consultant and troop committee chairman. In the past she has been a Junior leader, Brownie leader and served on the council nominating committee. She has also served on the staff of the Konahasset Day Camp.

She is past president of the Second Congregational Church Women's Fellowship, and past chairman of the church music committee.

Mrs. Goodwin is currently a Cadette consultant. In the past she has been a Brownie leader and assistant leader, a Junior assistant leader, and a Cadette leader and assistant leader. She is active in church activities in the community.

Jordan Gets DMD Degree

Among 23 women and 74 men to receive their Doctor of Medicine degrees from the University of Mass. Medical School on Friday, June 1, at Mechanics Hall in Worcester was Chris Jordan of Cohasset.

Mundhenk, Skipper jayvee coach for two years, is looking forward to next fall with six starters returning from a club that posted a 6-2-2 South Shore League record and qualified for the post-season tournament. Mundhenk succeeds Ron Mazza who resigned.

Among veterans Mundhenk will inherit are All-Scholastic Craig Langford, co-senior Phil Tye and junior Todd Langford, Craig's younger brother.

All scholastic Scott Muir is graduating. But his younger brother, John will seek the goalie slot.

Mundhenk, a guidance counselor at the high school studying for his doctorate, is a Brockton resident and native of Long Island. He is a 1972 graduate of Boston College and earned his Masters at B.C.

He played soccer in grade school and was captain and MVP in high school.

For three years at B.C., he was a greater Boston League All Star and Eagles captain, leading the Maroon and Gold in scoring.
